Re: Joseph Aiello, et al., v. Howard Brown, et al.,
No. 19 Civ. 9647(AT)

Dear Judge Torres,

I represent Plaintiffs in this matter. I write to update the Court concerning certain matters in advance of the Rule 16 conference scheduled with the Court for January 8, 2020.

Undersigned counsel has sent a copy of the Court's October 23, 2019 Order concerning the Rule 16 conference to all parties, along with a copy of the Court's Individual Practices, the Court's ECF Filing Instructions, and the Complaint. All parties have accepted service of the Complaint. Counsel for all parties will contribute to the joint letter and the Case Management Plan and Scheduling Order that is due by January 2, 2020. The parties will also indicate by that date whether they consent to a referral to a Magistrate Judge under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c).

Furthermore, counsel for all parties have discussed how to approach defendants' planned motion to dismiss in light of the Court's Individual Practices. Consistent with Individual Rule of Practice III.B.ii, the parties have agreed that defendants will send to plaintiffs the letter required by that rule on or before January 6, 2020 and that plaintiffs will respond to defendants with a letter of their own on or before January 13, 2020. Neither such letter shall be filed with the Court. In the event the exchange of letters is unable to resolve the issues, either plaintiffs shall seek leave to amend or the parties shall follow the steps identified in Rule III.A with regards to pre-motion letters. The parties jointly request that the Court "so order" this proposed schedule.

The parties are available to discuss any of the matters in this letter at the Court's convenience.

GRANTED.

SO ORDERED.
